

The City of Milwaukee Health Department conducted a survey in an effort to better understand what issues mattered the most to the Milwaukee community. A total of 3026 surveys were completed between July 15, 2016 and September 30, 2016.

Top 5 issues that need to be addressed to improve the health and well-being of the Milwaukee community

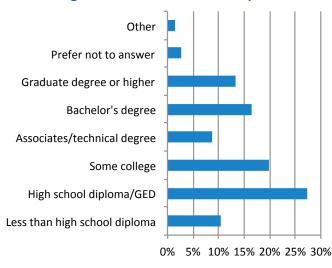

(% of survey respondents who selected the issue)

- 1. Crime and neighborhood safety 42.8%
- 2. Access to affordable and healthy food 39.9%
- 3. Jobs and income/wages 33.8%
- 4. Education 29.8%
- 5. Access to basic human needs 27.8%

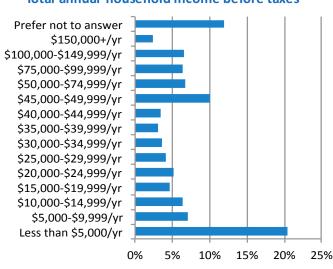

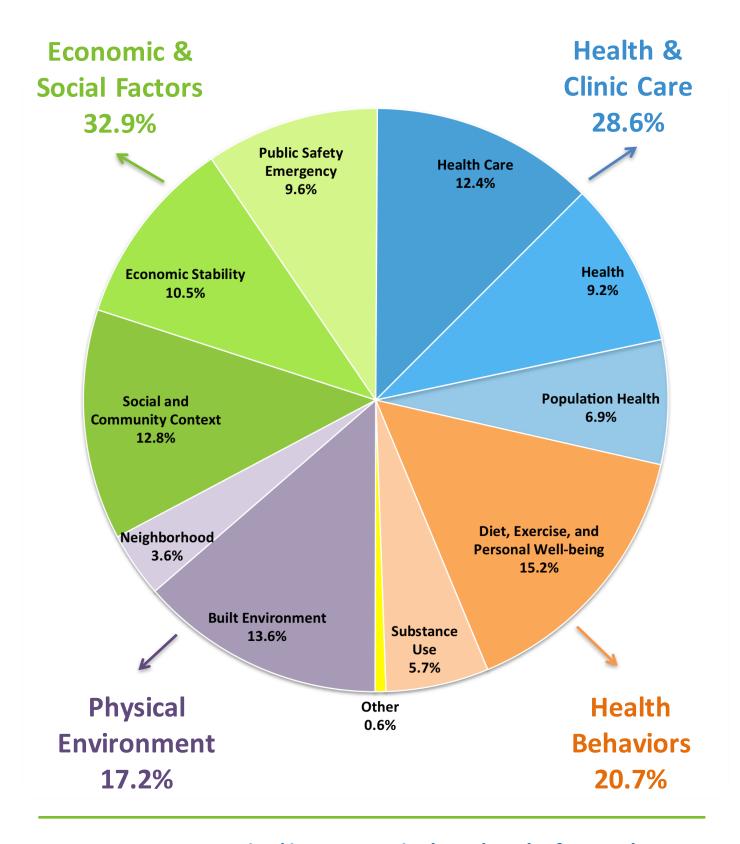

Total annual household income before taxes

Issues were organized into categories based on the factors that influence health as described by the County Health Rankings Model.

*Percentage of total number of issues selected by survey respondents

Social and Community Context - 12.8%

Education (e.g. early childhood, grade school, high school, college/technical school) - 5.2% Racism and other forms of discrimination - 3.3%

Violence (e.g. personal and intimate partner violence) -3.1%

Health equity (elimination of health disparities) -1.2%

Economic Stability - 10.5%

Jobs and income/wages - 5.9%

Poverty - 4.6%

Public Safety Emergency – 9.6%

Crime and neighborhood safety – 7.5%

Emergency management including law enforcement and fire protection - 1.3%

Accidental injures – 0.8%

Economic & Social Factors

32.9%

Health Care - 12.4%

Health insurance - 4.1%

Access to healthcare services - 3.8%

Dental health – 3.5%

Quality of healthcare services - 1.0%

Health & Clinic Care

28.6%

Health - 9.2%

Mental health (e.g. depression, anxiety, suicide) - 3.8%

Chronic disease prevention (e.g. heart disease, diabetes) - 1.7%

Immunizations - 1.5%

Sexually transmitted diseases (including HIV/AIDS) – 1.5%

Infectious disease (e.g. acute disease such as influenza) – 0.7%

Population Health - 7.0%

Health of children and teenagers - 1.9%

Health of babies and mothers (including infant mortality) - 1.7%

Health of older adults - 1.7%

Health of youth and adults with disabilities - 1.1%

Health of LGBTQ youth and adults - 0.6%

Diet, Exercise, and Personal Well-being – 15.1%

Access to affordable and healthy food – 7.0%

Physical activity and exercise -2.3%

Obesity - 2.1%

Nutrition (e.g., healthy food, diet, food allergies) -1.9%

Stress management – 1.8%

Substance Use - 5.6%

Alcohol and substance abuse (including prescription drug and heroin abuse) - 4.4%

Tobacco use (e.g. cigarettes, smokeless tobacco, vaping and e-cigarettes) -1.2%

Health Behaviors

20.7%

Physical Environment

17.2%

Built Environment – 13.6%

Access to basic human needs (e.g., food, clothing, shelter) - 4.9%

Safe and affordable housing -3.5%

Transportation - 1.8 %

Access to internet and Wi-Fi - 1.8%

Accessibility: resources for disabilities - 1.6%

Neighborhood – 3.6%

Environment (e.g., healthy, clean air, food, water, lead) – 2.2%

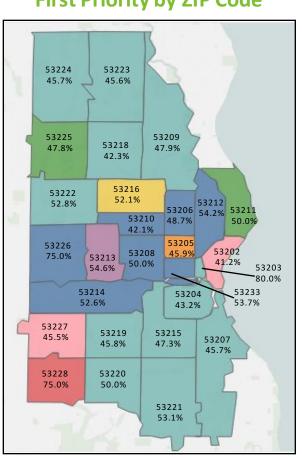

Parks and recreation -1.4%

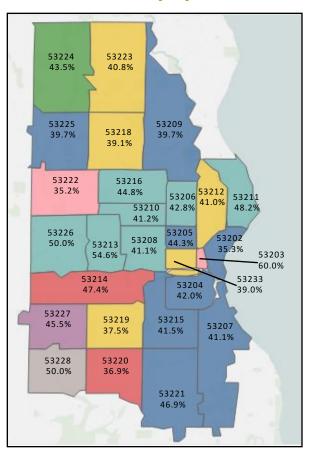

Other - 0.6%: Segregation, trafficking, community events for kids, contraceptive access, parenting classes, safer bike and pedestrian facilities, homelessness, gun laws and access, eye care, healthy relationships, family values and involvement classes, affordable health care, pollution, child abuse and other forms of trauma, community groups.

PRIORITY ISSUE RESULTS BY ZIP CODE

First Priority by ZIP Code

Second Priority by ZIP Code

The maps show the first and second most frequently identified priorities in each ZIP code within the City of Milwaukee. The percent of respondents in each ZIP code who identified the issue as a priority is listed below the ZIP code label.

Priority

Access to Affordable Food

Access to Basic Human Needs

Alcohol and Substance Abuse

Crime and Neighborhood Safety

Education

Access to Affordable Food

Mental Health

Poverty

Physical Activity and Exercise

Visit www.Milwaukee.gov/MKEelevate to learn more!